

Crescenta Valley Town Council

Statement of the Crescenta Valley Town Council on the Women's Movement in Iran

The Crescenta Valley Town Council stands in solidarity with the courageous actions of the people of Iran and join them in their calls for change, freedom, justice and for the protection of human rights for all citizens of the country.

In response to the tragic death of Mahsa Amini, the people of Iran and around the world have been protesting demanding change. There is no place for violence, prosecution or persecution to those who are seeking justice, freedom to exercise bodily autonomy including choice of dress and the upholding of their basic human rights as stipulated in the Charter of the United Nations. We call on the relevant authorities to support and enable the expression of the people in a safe environment without fear.

The Crescenta Valley Town Council, as a self-governing advisory body to the Fifth Supervisorial District of the County of Los Angeles, recognizes and embraces its responsibility to promote equality for all its citizens, residents and visitors and will continue to honor its duty to promote tolerance, non -discrimination and diversity within our community. We support our American -Iranian neighbors as they call for justice.

We stand with all the world to end violence, remove discriminatory laws against and to end harassment of the women of Iran.
